YOUR FIRST JOB: WHAT TO EXPECT

THERE ARE DIFFERENT TYPES OF CONTRACTS GIVEN TO TEACHERS. THESE INCLUDE:

A FIXED-TERM CONTRACT should only be given when the need for the teacher's service is genuinely a temporary one. A fixed-term contract can lead to a continuous [permanent] contract in certain circumstances.

A PROBATIONARY CONTRACT may be given to teachers entering employment in a school for the first time.

A CONTINUOUS CONTRACT is given to teachers who hold permanent full-time positions having completed the probation period satisfactorily.

A CONTRACT OF INDEFINITE DURATION [CID] may be given to teachers who have completed two consecutive years in a school, whose jobs are viable for a third year, and where there are no written objective justifiable grounds for not giving a third year. CIDs are subject to certain criteria. Once granted, a CID provides the same terms and conditions as a continuous contract [pro rata].

See more about teachers' contracts - visit the Contracts Explained web page

Guidelines for teachers on probation can be found here - visit the A-Z of Rights and Conditions – Probation

GOT A QUESTION?

Beginning a career as a teacher brings much uncertainty. How do I register as a teacher? What subjects can I teach? How can I find work? What type of contract do I have? What should I be paid? What are my rights and entitlements? The ASTI is here to answer all your questions, as well as to provide advice, support and assistance to you as you embark on teacher training, undertake your teaching practice, graduate, seek work, sign your first contract, experience your first year as a teacher and as you continue your career in teaching. As an ASTI student member, you can contact us by phone, email, or via social media to access expert advice on any area of teaching and employment.
