INDUSTRIAL ACTION DIRECTIVE
UPDATED NOVEMBER 2026

PHASE 1 INDUSTRIAL ACTION DIRECTIVE FOR ALL ASTI MEMBERS

From normal start time on Monday 5th October 2026, and until further notice, all ASTI members are instructed to adhere to the following initial industrial action directive as sanctioned by the ASTI Standing Committee.

Members of the ASTI are instructed to follow the industrial action directive as outlined below:

NON CO-OPERATION with the Croke Park Hours

NON CO-OPERATION with meetings held outside of normal school hours

NON CO-OPERATION with email and other forms of electronic communication

NON CO-OPERATION with phone communication

PHASE 2 INDUSTRIAL ACTION - ESCALATION

From normal start time on Monday 16th November 2026, and until further notice, all ASTI members are instructed to adhere to the following escalation of the industrial action directive as sanctioned by the ASTI Standing Committee.

Members of the ASTI are instructed to follow the industrial action directive as outlined below:

NON CO-OPERATION with in-house student reports and examination results

This means members will not be completing, submitting or uploading routine student progress reports including internal examination results, through school management software/paper forms/any other means.

NON CO-OPERATION with activities outside of teachers' timetabled hours

This means members will not:

- Undertake additional non voluntary work-related activities, meetings, events or initiatives outside their timetabled teaching hours. This time is protected for class preparation and assessment work directly associated with teaching and learning.
- Undertake additional work demanded by school management or the employer outside their normal professional commitments.
