STRIKE DAY 12TH NOVEMBER 2026
GUIDELINES FOR BOARDING SCHOOLS

All ASTI members working in boarding schools are on strike on 12th November.

- Under no circumstances should any teaching or tuition be undertaken by ASTI members in boarding schools on 12th November.
- Where the attendance of teachers is necessary to ensure the health and safety of students the following arrangements should be put in place:
    - Minimum cover necessary should be put in place by means of a voluntary rota.
    - No ASTI member should receive payment for any attendance on 12th November.
    - A meeting should be sought immediately with school management in order to reach agreement as to what constitutes minimal cover.
    - Workers in the school who are not in dispute should not be expected to cover duties normally covered by teachers.
    - From midnight of November 11th/12th ASTI members may be on duty in the school as normal and should receive payment as normal.
- All ASTI members are expected to attend the rally. Members are encouraged to attend the rally closet and most convenient to them.
